“When I joined the Employment law practice at Laga as a junior trainee I received a warm welcome and was given the opportunity to explore various employment law aspects and assist in both national and international projects. I learned that teamwork is a key element to improving my knowledge and achieving a level of excellence. A young and dynamic work environment, professional guidance and various career opportunities make Laga a unique law firm where work is interesting as well as challenging. But it is not all hard work, as the numerous social activities always provide the opportunity to unwind and have fun. In short, Laga is the place to be for young lawyers with ambition and looking for new challenges!”

Junior trainee – Employment law

“As an associate in the Corporate/M&A practice of Laga, I guide and assist multinational corporations and national industry powerhouses with the setting-up of complex joint-ventures and the roll-out of mergers and acquisitions. It is a demanding yet rewarding role to play, which grants you a front-row seat in today’s business. Throughout the years, I have experienced that team cohesion and collegiality at Laga are second to none. New trainees and lateral hires are warmly welcomed and easily integrated into our practice teams. Whereas we pride ourselves in taking our clients’ needs and concerns seriously, we believe a good sense of humour is a true asset to thrive in a professional environment.”

"I joined Laga as a trainee in the IP/TMC department in August 2007. Not knowing what to expect, I was pleasantly surprised by the friendly atmosphere and the collegial spirit I found. Partners are approachable and all conversations are conducted on a first-name basis. Having a drink with colleagues after work is far from exceptional. The work is challenging yet never insurmountable. I was taught (and I still learn) to abide by a high standard of quality of work. Although the learning curve is sometimes steep, seasoned professionals always make time to support and guide you. Pro-activeness is stimulated for associates and trainees alike."

Junior trainee – IT/IP law, International

"I have been with Laga since September 2007. As a trainee in the Corporate team, I assist and advise clients on a wide spectrum of business and corporate law matters, such as incorporations, liquidations and mergers. Our close-knit team consists of a dynamic mix of eager beginners and experienced professionals working hard together to succeed without forgetting to have fun too. Thorough training and intense follow-up by senior associates and partners have ensured that my first experience with the legal profession has been a smooth transition, to say the least. Digesting course books in college is one thing, putting the knowledge into practice is quite another!"
