

Element

Automated entity management solution for greater quality, control and efficiency

Key features

Element is a web-enabled application that supports the end-to-end corporate compliance process, offering due date and task tracking, and automated project management and document generation.

Whether used in a fully or partially outsourcing environment, or in-house, Element offers:

- Centrally managed corporate database
- Calendar with automated due date tracking, task and project management capabilities
- Intuitive library for document storage with extensive search functionality
- Interactive dashboard for better insight and status checking
- Organisation charts
- Full audit trail, with all the data remaining in one system

A consistent, global methodology can:

- Streamline project timelines, and align resources
- Improve quality and control of data, through built-in quality checks
- Balance and manage risk, by eliminating manual intervention

Element helps manage complexity and risk, giving control and insight into the corporate compliance process

Who can benefit?

- Multinationals or national groups of companies with multiple entities
- Other companies seeking to:
 - Ease the administrative burden of corporate compliance
 - Reduce costs
 - Mitigate risk
 - Increase control
 - Ensure full compliance at all times

Why now?

Ensuring timely, global compliance is a significant challenge, as regulatory change is common and sanctions for non-compliance can be severe.

Automation of the corporate compliance process may lead to better management of risk, mitigation of directors' liability and increased efficiency, and may offer potential opportunities to pro-actively manage overall corporate housekeeping.

Why Laga?

- Element incorporates our experience and knowledge of central delivery of complex corporate compliance services.
- Legal departments must achieve more with less. Entity increases efficiency, improves control, and increases the quality of the corporate compliance process.
- Diligent corporate compliance can help manage risk efficiently, and allow resources to focus on other business objectives.
