GDPR HR Checklist – Obligations with regard to the processing of personal data as from 25 May 2018

After an implementation period of 2 years, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) has finally entered into force.

Personal data processing is an important aspect of HR management and all companies in general. The downloadable checklist allows an at a glance evaluation of whether an HR department is fully prepared.

Action will be required for companies that have not made preparations yet, and without further delay. With its extensive GDPR preparation experience, Laga is readily available for any questions in this regard.
